Celebrating Five Years
Peniel Theological Seminary
Riobamba, Ecuador

Lenin and Nellie de Janon, and Wil Pounds were featured speakers at the 5th Anniversary of Peniel Theological Seminary Leadership Conference

"Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved, a worker who has no need to be ashamed, rightly handling the word of truth" (2 Timothy 2:15).

The 5th Annual Quichua Pastors and Wives' Leadership Conference at Peniel Theological Seminary in Riobamba, Ecuador, celebrated the fifth anniversary of the seminary's ministry.

The seminary began with 13 students and has over 170 students in Riobamba. It has extensions in Guayaquil, Quito, Pallatanga and Guaranda. New centers are planned this year for Cuenca and another in Quito.

Wil serves as International coordinator and a Bible and theology professor at the extensions.

Alberto Copa taught First Corinthians each morning. Lenin de Janon spoke on the pastor and his family, false doctrines, and the call of God. Wil spoke on missions and Peniel Seminary. A church that does not have a missionary vision will die.

Wil also gave the challenge to the new seminary graduates on Wednesday night. This was his second year to give the commencement address at graduation.
