

WHAT YOU CAN DO

Partnership missions give you an opportunity to become personally involved in what God is doing in world missions.

New Song in the Andes

Personal Witnessing Demonstration at Evangelism in Depth Conference at the Genesis Mission in Riobamba, Ecuador

They are singing a new song in the Andes, saying "Worthy art You to take the book, and to break its seals; for You were slain, and did purchase for God with Your blood men from every tribe and tongue and people and nation" (Revelation 5:9).

There is a new song in the Andes as Quichua believers in Cotopaxi Province, Ecuador continue to reach out and share Christ. In June 2011 Wil had the privilege of teaching evangelism workshops in Gatazo, Riobamba and Jippijapa.

These conferences range from large established churches to small home churches and youth groups.

These are some of the church leaders in the new Genesis mission in Riobamba, Ecuador. In Jippijapa the interest was so intense the participants did not want to stop, and they asked to continue for an hour longer. They want me to come back and teach every three months.

Quichua women are quick to learn how to share Christ using the Roman Road.

Students in the Saturday classes at the Peniel Seminary in Riobamba.

There is no great joy than sharing Christ one on one. It is a constant reminder of the new song Christ has put in your own heart. Christ changes lives. After each workshop we continue to get reports months later of people being saved as a result of students putting into practice these lessons.
