

WHAT YOU CAN DO

Partnership missions give you an opportunity to become personally involved in what God is doing in world missions.

Pray daily for the work in Honduras.

Give financially. We are a faith mission and are dependent upon your financial gifts. Please pray about becoming involved in the support of our mission. "As long as the Lord provides I will give ... $25 $50 $100 $___ a month."

Current Needs:

- ❑ Pastor and Church Leadership Training Ministry in Ecuador. Each trip costs approximately $4,000 and covers airplane tickets, room and board, rent for truck, gas, local workers, textbooks and food for students.
- ❑ Pray for Alberto Copa as he coordinates our work in Ecuador.
- ❑ Pray for evangelism saturation teams to come and do door-to-door evangelism and rallies at night.
- ❑ Pray for scholarships for Peniel Theological Seminary students in Riobamba, Ecuador.
- ❑ Pray for Evangelism in Depth workshops with Nicaragua Baptist pastors.
- ❑ Pray for wisdom to know where the Lord is leading to conduct evangelism workshops, and where to focus teaching ministry. We have been asked to return every three months and teach Ecuador pastors.

Alberto and Nancy Copa coordinate Abide in Christ in Ecuador. Alberto is a Quichua pastor with 20 years' experience and Rector of Peniel Theological Seminary.

- ❑ We are presenting one-day, three-day weekend, and one week Evangelism Workshops in churches in Latin America. These are proven practical and effective personal evangelism workshops for pastors and church leaders. The vision for training rural pastors began with a course on personal evangelism while serving as a missionary in Honduras.
- ❑ All gifts to Abide in Christ are tax deductible under IRS 501 (c) (3) tax exempt status.

Quichua Pastor & Wives' Conference 2012

Peniel Theological Seminary's 2nd Annual Pastor and Wives' Conference

"For from Him and through Him and to Him are all things. To Him be the glory forever. Amen" (Romans 11:36).

Dr. Ed Balducci reflected, "My most impressionable moment came when I saw that teaching ministry leaders had the potential to make many disciples and have a great impact in Ecuador. These students have a hunger to know God and to share the gospel."

My most impressionable moment at the Second Quichua Pastor and Wives' Conference at Riobamba, Ecuador, came as I stood praying over thirty people who had just made public their decisions. Many in the congregation were weeping. There was a powerful sense of the presence of God sweeping over the congregation as I preached. You could sense God was working in hearts. It was a powerfully humbling experience knowing only God could do what you were seeing Him do. TO HIM ALONE BE THE GLORY.

To God alone be the glory!

I asked the team that participated in the Quichua Pastor and Wives Conference to share their most impressionable moment at the conference.

Richard Alguilar translated for Ed Balducci and Jerry Starnes. He is a church planter in the capital city of Quito, and professor of communications in the central university.

"What a passion for Christ! That is the great point in this conference, Christ and only Christ, for He is sufficient for our life. The preachers did a good job pointing out Christ for the glory of God."

Richard Aguilar translating for Jerry Starnes

Carmen Reinoso is a veteran Ecuadorian missionary of many years who now lives in Atlanta, and with her husband works for the Spanish productions of Charles Stanley wrote:

"I thank the Lord and you for the privilege to serve my people here in Chimborazo. It was a blessing to me just looking around and seeing how God has blessed the ministry here. I remember being a teenager and hearing and looking at Miss Edith Kraus who lived so many years (around 30 years) preaching and teaching and serving and all she could show as fruit of her hard work was just one family, the Naula family. I feel privileged to be a witness of the fruit of her hard work. I just thank God to see so many of my brothers and sisters learning and sharing the joy of the Gospel. I enjoyed sharing our teachings with JoAnn. I saw the ladies were happy and blessed."

Jo Ann Starnes said, "My most impressionable moment at this conference happened after Carmen Reinoso taught a lesson. She had the ladies to write ten things for which they were thankful. One after another said how thankful they were to attend this conference. So many times there were Bible studies for their husbands but never anything offered for them. They have a hunger to learn. I thank God for the opportunity to have shared Biblical principles with them. Hopefully, they will grow in spiritual wisdom because of this conference."

Cindy de Aguilar translating for Jo Ann

Carmen's daughter Cindy Reinoso de Aguilar translated for Jo Ann describes her most impressionable moment:

"The stars in their eyes said what a million words could never say. The women at the Riobamba 2012 congress were so happy, blessed and thankful that they were taken into consideration to take part and have their own speakers. Their words 'These words are new to me and I have been blessed by them'... 'I came but never imagined how wonderful these teachings would be to my life'... 'I have learned so much and I take with me new hope to live and face my circumstances'... 'Thank you for coming and sharing these new words with us, I am very happy, God bless you.'"
